

BETAGARD 9015

COAL DUST CONTROL

Description

BETAGARD 9015 is a ready to used product with dual function of performance as coal quality protection and dust suppressant or dust control. As coal quality protection, it will protect coal from moisture and oxidation, prevent self combustion at the stock pile, prevent coal dust, rain erosion and material lost. As dust suppressant, BETAGARD 9015 improves visibility, avoid illness caused by dust particles and long term performance.

Properties

Physical Form	Milky white
Specific Gravity	1.00 - 1.06
pH	6.0 - 7.0
Solubility	Dispesible in water

Dosage and Feeding

BETAGARD 9015 as on application has to be diluted with water up to 2.5% for coal quality protection and 0.2 – 0.3% for dust suppressant.

Handling and storage

BETAGARD 9015 should not come into contact with exposed iron or non ferrous metal during storage or processing. It is important to ensure that containers are kept tightly sealed, and the headspace of bulk storage tanks must be kept saturated with water vapor. This product must not be exposed to high temperatures, and it must be protected from frost.

BETAGARD 9015 has a shelf life pf six months at 10 – 30 deg C, provided due attentionis paid to the hygiene of tanks and storage facilities.

Packing

In plastic container with net weight o 25 kg and 200 kg.